

Satelitte Radio should be allowed to provide "locally oriented programming" such as traffic reports and weather reports. By doing this they will be providing a needed and valuable service to the citizens of this Country, who will be able to access this information without listening to commercials and programming they do not care for. I stronly urge the FCC to allow satellite radio to continue to provide weather and traffic reports.